About Us

Have you finished year 12 and not sure what your next move is? Or left school because it may not have been a good fit? You're 15-19 years old, looking for a job but need skills and a piece of paper to succeed?

At SDIEA, we offer the Get Set For Work program, to help you decide what job might fit you, and how you can get it.

▶ People come to us to the Get Set For Work program from all over the Southern Downs region. They are between 15 and 19 and are looking get a better handle on their life, get educated and get on their way to a job.

▶ We provide support and services to you on a one-to-one basis.

▶ We are a not-for-profit organisation, and we are based in your community, so we know what is happening in the region

▶ Our team work to figure out what success means to you, and to figure out a way for you to get there.

What type of courses do you run?

Our Get Set For Work programs are funded through the Skilling Queenslanders for Work which means there is no cost to you to study.
